

It's the ACFA Photo Competition time again! This year we've changed the format and have also added a brand new category, giving you even more opportunity to enter!

We've gone online to allow the entries to be viewed from home or wherever you are logged in. The photographs will be exhibited on the ACFA website for members to enjoy, then all will be able to vote for their favourites by email.

The theme as always is Archaeology, with the following categories:

- Home
- International
- Humorous
- Stills by drones *New***

So, for the chance to win prizes for Best Photo in each category and also the coveted Overall Best Photo award, here's what you need to put in your email to enter:

- Photo as attachment
- Category*
- Title of photo for display
- Your name
- Your preferred contact email address

Optional - Any further information about the photo you may want to add for further reference eg location, when taken, subject etc

*Please note, you can enter all four categories but entries are limited to one per category.

Entries should be emailed to acfacomp202@outlook.com from Monday 31st August until the closing date of Monday 28th September.

The final entries will all be available to view at the ACFA website. You can vote for your favourite in each category and also your overall favourite, from Thursday 1st October until Thursday 15th October. Remember you can only vote once for each photo you choose and please no voting for your own, even if it is the best!

Full details on how to vote will be available on the ACFA website after the Entry closing date. The results will be announced at the AGM, or should the event have to be cancelled, they will be announced on the website. This will be updated for you as appropriate.

So, as Lockdown eases, dust off your cameras, your photo albums or even your drones and let's enjoy your fabulous photos! We're looking forward to some really great entries. Good luck!
