

ACFA PHOTO COMPETITION

2022

Dear Members,

The 2022 ACFA Photo Competition is now open!

The competition will be online this year. Entries will be able to be viewed from home or wherever you're logged in. All photographs will be exhibited on the ACFA website for members to enjoy, and everyone will be able to vote for their favourites by email.

The theme, of course, is archaeology, with the following categories:

- Home
- International
- Humour
- Stills by drone

Since pandemic restrictions have lifted, I hope you've been able to get out and about either on surveys or visits and take some great photos. Unlike last year, archive entries will not qualify.

So, for the chance to win a prize for Best Photo in each category, and also the coveted Overall Best Photo award, here's what you need to put in your email to enter:

- ✓ Photo as attachment
- ✓ Category*
- ✓ Title of photo for display
- ✓ Your name
- ✓ Your preferred contact email address
- ✓ Optional – any further information about the photo for further reference, such as location, date, subject etc

*Please note – you can enter all four categories, but entries are limited to one per category per person

Entries should be emailed to acfaphotocompetition@gmail.com

The closing date is Friday 21st October 2022.

All entries will all be available to view on the ACFA website.

You can vote for your favourite in each category, and also your overall favourite, after the closing date. Remember, you can only vote once for each photo you choose, and please, no voting for your own, even if it is the best!

These details will also be available on the ACFA website. The results will be announced at the AGM, and also posted on the website.

We're looking forward to some really great entries. Good luck!
